

"Women's History: Saving Oaklands"

Oaklands' staff developed a display honoring the original ladies who went to work to save the historical mansion from being destroyed and were able to fight for restoration. Within the exhibit, you will see newspaper articles which chronicle the event, with photos of the original women, as well as garments and accessories which would have been typically worn during the era, loaned significantly by the TXMD historic clothing collection at MTSU.