

NFS 4265—Food Safety and Sanitation

The Food Safety class with Mrs. Cindy Ayers met outside the EHS building to lecture/practice a food safety system called HACCP - Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point. It is a process in your facility where you follow the flow of food and determine points that are critical to food safety, usually involving some type of temperature control.

