I. Course Description
This course offers in-depth perspectives of theories and techniques pertaining to child and adolescent counseling, with an emphasis on the impact of traumatic events on children and adolescents’ cognitive, neurobiological, and psychological development. Information will be presented through lectures, discussions, small group activities, trainings, and viewing current and relevant videos. Students will develop skills that can be implemented in their work with children and adolescents via role play and hands on experiential learning activities. This course highlights the role of development, culture and empirical evidence in trauma-specific assessment, referral, and interventions with children, adolescents and their families. The impact of crises, disasters, sexual assault and other Adverse Childhood Events (ACEs) on individuals and communities will be addressed.

V. Program Disposition Statement

Students in the Professional Counseling Program are required to demonstrate Program Dispositions (being collaborative, ethical, professional, reflective, self-directed, critical thinkers, and have acceptable counseling skills) in this class and in all other academic and professional endeavors. Information regarding demonstration of these dispositions will be used as a component of the faculty’s continuous evaluation of student progress. (See Professional Counseling Program Handbook for further details.)

VI. Reasonable Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you have a documented disability described by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and would like to request academic and/or physical accommodations, please contact Director, Disabled Student Services, KUC 120 (898-2783) as soon as possible. Course requirements will not be waived, but reasonable accommodations may be provided as appropriate.
VII. Professional Organizations
The MTSU Professional Counseling Program strongly recommends that you obtain membership in the American Counseling Association (ACA), American School Counselor Association (ASCA), the Tennessee Licensed Professional Counselors Association (TLPACA), and/or the Tennessee Counseling Association (TCA). Student memberships are available at a reduced rate, and allow you to become actively involved in local, state, and national activities, which serve to enhance your professional repertoire.

VIII. Academic Misconduct
The use of a third party to submit a student's work is only allowed when accommodations are approved by the Disabled Student Services Office. Students found to be in violation of this policy will be reported to the faculty member and Dean of Student Affairs. Students should be familiar with the "MTSU Students Rights and Responsibilities" handbook which outlines academic misconduct including plagiarism, cheating, fabricating or facilitating any such act. The Handbook also provides a statement of community standards of civil behavior and code of computer use.

IX. Academic Honesty
It is expected that all work you complete for this course is your own. You are expected to include appropriate citations (when applicable) in all of your work for this course. The University policy for academic misconduct will be followed. Academic misconduct includes the following behaviors:

- Plagiarism – the adoption or reproduction of ideas, words, statements, images, or works of another person as one’s own without proper acknowledgement.
- Cheating – using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise. The term academic exercise includes all forms of work submitted for credit or hours.
- Fabrication – unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise.
- Facilitation – helping or attempting to help another to violate a provision of the institutional code of academic misconduct.

X. The True Blue Pledge
As a member of this diverse community, I am a valuable contributor to its progress and success. I am engaged in the life of this community. I am a recipient and a giver. I am a listener and a speaker. I am honest in word and deed. I am committed to reason, not violence. I am a learner now and forever. I am a BLUE RAIDER. True Blue!

XI. Electronics Policy
Please refrain from texting, browsing, or using cell phones in class. Please refrain from usage of laptops or tablets if not related to class material. I will ask you to leave, if you do not adhere to this policy.
