

Students from NFS 3100 Food and Culture learned first-hand about traditional food and festivities from Latin Americans when they partnered with the MTSU-La Cominudad Student Organization and the MTSU-American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences on October 25th from 6-9pm. There were games, music and foods from Venezuela, Mexico and Brazil. All 50 participants had a wonderful time at the Food and Family Event.

