

Marlene Sanders

In addition to graduating with a degree in Political Science and minoring in English and International Relations at Middle Tennessee State University as an undergraduate, Marlene Sanders also completed a Master's in Public Administration and a Certificate in Writing from MTSU.

Marlene currently works as an associate director for state government affairs for Merck and Company. She has worked on public policy and product access in five Southern states. She is the chair of Tennessee's PhRMA state legislative task force. Before joining Merck, she worked as a public affairs liaison for Eli Lilly and Company and as an associate with the government-relations firm of Smith Johnson & Carr.

Marlene is an active member of the Nashville community, where she has served as a board member of the Susan G. Komen Foundation of Greater Nashville, Nashville Cares, Better Decisions and Planned Parenthood of Middle and East Tennessee. She is a member of the Women's Political Collaborative, the MTSU Friends of Liberal Arts, and the Nashville Women's Breakfast Club where she serves as vice chair for membership.