

5th Annual MTSU Nonprofit & Social Innovation Student Summit Tuesday, April 3rd Student Union

Check In Begins 9:00 am

Session I
9:40-11:05 am

A Socially Innovative MIND

A panel of MTSU students and alumni who are following their passions share how important a flexible, open, learning mind is to achieving their mission.

Stephanie Carpenter, John Bosworth and Kelly North

Session 2
11:20-12:45 pm

Advocacy – Key Strategy for Social Change

Nonprofit leaders who use advocacy to achieve their mission will share examples of how it works and why it is important.

Anna Carella, Healthy and Free TN

Aniya Wiley, Kids of Incarcerated Moms

Session 3
1:00-2:25 pm

Shaping the Narrative & Real Collaboration – What Nonprofits Can Learn from Murfreesboro ♥ Loves Community Action

Community leaders from Murfreesboro Loves share lessons learned in working together to find common ground and shape the narrative last fall when white supremacists came to town to protest. Community invited to attend.

Jason Bennett and others from Murfreesboro Loves community organization

2:30-4:30 pm

Volunteer & Internship FAIR

Nonprofits and social businesses will share information about their organizations and volunteer/intern opportunities.

To attend, sign up online or onsite

All MTSU
Students Welcome
No Cost to Attend

Register at <http://MTSUStudentSummit.eventzilla.net> or email Leigh Anne Clark at la.clark@mtsu.edu

Jones College of Business
Department of Management

College of Liberal Arts
Department of Communication Studies
& Organizational Communication