

Middle Tennessee State University
School of Nursing
Exam Policy

Purpose: The purpose of the Exam Policy is to establish standards in the MTSU School of Nursing that will result in fairness, integrity and professionalism. It is essential for students to be treated fairly in every course. It is the goal of the MTSU School of Nursing Faculty to provide each student with equal opportunities to achieve success.

While students are expected to take scheduled exams at required times, there may be unforeseen circumstances that may result in a missed exam. The guidelines set forth in this policy will be followed by all Faculty of the MTSU School of Nursing.

I. Exam Statement

Students are expected to take required scheduled exams according to each course outline provided by the assigned professor. Students must follow the guidelines set forth in the Exam Policy regarding missed exams.

II. Students

1. There will be no make-up exams scheduled in any nursing course.
2. Students who take all unit exams, and have an overall course average of at least 80% may choose not to take the final exam.
3. All course exams (excluding the final exam) must average a grade of at least 80% without rounding to determine if the final exam is required.
4. If the final exam is taken, the exam grade will be calculated into the final course grade (even if final grade is lowered as a result).
5. In the event a student misses a unit exam, the student must take the final exam.
6. If a unit exam is missed, the final exam replaces the missed exam grade which means the final exam is no longer optional.
7. Students who miss a second (or more) unit exam(s) will receive a grade of zero (0) for those exams.
8. In the event the student is late for a scheduled course exam, the student will not acquire additional time to sit in the class to finish the exam.
9. The final exam does not count twice.
10. Each nursing course will provide the following Exam Policy Statement in the syllabus:

Course Syllabus statement:

Students are expected to take all unit exams as scheduled. There are no make-up exams permitted in any nursing course. In the event the student is late for a scheduled course exam, the student will not acquire additional time to sit in the class to finish the exam.

*All course exams (excluding the final exam) must average a grade of a least 80% without rounding to determine if the final exam is required. The student must opt in for the final exam on the last day of class.

If the final exam is taken, the exam grade will be calculated into the final course grade.

Students who miss a unit exam must take the final exam. The final exam replaces the missed exam grade which means the final exam is no longer optional. The final exam does not count twice.

Students who miss a second (or more) exam(s) will receive a grade of zero (0) for the exam(s).

III. Procedures During Exams

1. All personal belongings, including electronic devices will be placed in the front of the classroom during exams.

2. All smart devices to include but not limited to cell phones, ear buds, or latches with computer screens are not to be used during scheduled exams.
3. No hats or hoodies may be worn during scheduled exams.
4. No food or drink are allowed during scheduled exams.
5. Students should take bathroom breaks prior to the exam. Students may not leave the room during exams.
6. The student is not permitted to ask questions about the exam during the exam.
7. The Professor reserves the right to establish a seating chart during scheduled exams.

IV. Additional Procedures if testing in the Computer Lab

1. There will be colored paper and pencils in the computer lab available to students who need scratch paper during testing.
2. Upon verification and completion of the exam, the instructor will collect the paper from the student.

V. Rounding Policy Statement

Final course grades will be rounded as follows:

Grading Scale and Rounding

90-100	89.5 will round to 90 = A
80-89	79.5 will round to 80 = B
70-79	69.5 will round to 70 = C
60-69	59.5 will round to 60 = D

No other rounding will occur.
