

Human Rights

Interested in promoting or advocating international human rights, working in either governmental or non-governmental organizations? These programs offer certificates and degrees to prepare you for careers in the burgeoning human rights field.

University of Denver	http://www.du.edu/korbel/programs/masters/human-rights.html
University of Washington	http://jsis.washington.edu/humanrights/
Arizona State University	https://newcollege.asu.edu/graduate/degrees/social-justice-and-human-rights-ma
University of Iowa (certificate)	http://www.registrar.uiowa.edu/registrar/catalog/universitycollege/humanrights/
University of Chicago	https://humanrights.uchicago.edu/
Columbia University	http://gsas.columbia.edu/content/academic-programs/human-rights-studies
University College London	http://www.ucl.ac.uk/spp/teaching/masters/ma-human-rights
University of San Francisco	http://www.usfca.edu/soe/programs/ime/ma_hre/
University of Leicester	http://www2.le.ac.uk/study/postgrad/taught-campus/politics/ethics
University of Connecticut (certificate)	http://humanrights.uconn.edu/academic/graduate/graduate.php

University of York	http://www.york.ac.uk/cahr/studying/postgraduate/ma/
University of Kent	http://www.kent.ac.uk/politics/postgraduates/taught-programmes/mahr.html
University of Sussex	http://www.sussex.ac.uk/study/pg/2013/taught/1590/27501
Emory University (certificate)	http://www.candler.emory.edu/academics/certificates/human-rights.cfm
University of Peace	https://www.upeace.org/academic/academic-departments/international-law-human-rights-and-gender/international-law-and-human-rights
University of Sydney	http://sydney.edu.au/courses/Graduate-Certificate-in-Human-Rights