Abstract:

Textual records of the Joel S. Herron Collection include personal and business correspondence, business records, sheet music, music compositions, popular music, orchestrations, drawings, manuscript writings, newspaper clippings, and a small number of photographs. Also included are reel-to-reel tapes and sound recordings, largely 33 ½ and 45 RPMs.

Restrictions:

Patrons may access the Joel S. Herron Collection. Property rights reside with Middle Tennessee State University, while literary rights are retained by the creators of the records and their heirs, as stipulated by United States copyright law. For permissions to reproduce or to publish, please contact the Center for Popular Music. All materials in this collection are subject to standard national and international copyright laws. Center staff are able to assist with copyright questions for this material.

Boxes 60-65 are restricted. The archivist must make copies of the records held in the following folders and redact the confidential information contained in them before allowing access.

Provenance and Acquisition Information:

Joel S. Herron created or acquired the records contained in this collection over the course of his career in the music business, as well as in his personal life. Roark Herron, son of Joel Herron, donated his father's materials to the Center for Popular Music in November 2012 and March 2013.

Arrangement:

Original order of the materials has been maintained insofar as possible. The processing archivist devised the basic organizational scheme for the collection, reorganizing the materials within component groups where necessary. The processing archivist separated a number of commercially produced materials from the Joel S. Herron Collection under the pretense that they would better serve researchers if housed with more appropriate collections and records groups at the Center for Popular Music.

Boxes 1 – 39 are organized alphabetically by project name or song title and mostly consist of handwritten lyrics and sheet music, as well as any other corresponding papers related to the project. Boxes 40 - 41 are scripts and storyboards, organized alphabetically by project name. Boxes 42- 44 consist of correspondence, organized chronologically when possible. Box 45 consists of business contracts.

Boxes 46 – 47 consist of materials related to certain business projects, organized alphabetically by project name. Box 48 consists of information related to classes and events. Agency History/Biographical Sketch:

Joel Herron was born in Chicago, Illinois, on January 16, 1916, and died in Charleston, South Carolina, on January 30, 2012, at the age of 96. He graduated from Hyde Park High School in Chicago and attended the University of Chicago from 1933 to 1935. He was married twice: first to Gertrude Meyer, a model, who is the mother of his two surviving children, Roark Herron and Lama Ji, and second to the late Geraldine Hamburg, a Juilliard graduate, opera singer, and Broadway performer.

Joel Herron was the notable composer of "I'm a Fool to Want You," while Jack Wolfe and Frank Sinatra wrote the accompanying lyrics. This hit has subsequently been recorded by Billie Holiday, Dexter Gordon, Chet Baker, Linda Ronstadt, Sirely Bassey, Tony Bennett, Donald Byrd, and many others. Joel was a composer, arranger, conductor, and author, and copyrighted 118 works in his lifetime (located in donor folder). His stage scores include "Go Fight City Hall," and a number of musical themes for various commercials, including "Cream Smooth Jazz," for Manischewitz wine, performed by Roberta Flack.

Mr. Herron was the Musical Director of WMGM from 1946 and 1956, which included programs such as MGM Theatre of the Air, MGM Musical Comedy Theatre of the Air, the U.S. Treasury program Guest Star, and the Jane Froman Show. He was also the conductor for the Jimmy Dean Show, which aired on WCBS TV in the mid-1950s, and orchestra leader on the Jaye P. Morgan Show. Mr. Herron also worked closely with Johnny Mandel (whom he mentored early on), Hans Conried (in creating the album Monster Rally), Morey Amsterdam (on WMGM), Bucky Pizzarelli (on several pieces), Jane Froman (with whom he toured as a pianist and band leader), and was a dear friend of Jimmy Dean. Joel Herron conducted his orchestra in night clubs and hotels primarily in the New York City area, and was notably the band leader at the famous Copacabana Club and Persian Room at the Plaza Hotel in the 1950s, and traveled as band leader with the Barry Sisters on their tour of Israel in 1962.

Scope and Content:

The Joel S. Herron Collection documents the personal and professional life of Joel S. Herron; however, the collection primarily records his professional life. The materials in the collection largely consist of textual records related to Herron's involvement in the music business as a composer, producer, arranger, band director, and business owner.

This includes business correspondence, business records, sheet music, music compositions, popular music, orchestrations, drawings, advertisement scripts (primarily for television commercials), and other business-related manuscript writings. Other business-related materials include reel-to-reel tapes, a limited number of business-related photographs, newspaper clippings, and 33 ½ and 45 RPM records. A significantly smaller portion of records document Herron's personal life, including book manuscripts, correspondence, journal entries, and photographs.

Boxes 1 – 39 are organized alphabetically by project name or song title and mostly consist of handwritten lyrics and sheet music, as well as any other corresponding papers related to the project. Boxes 40 - 41 are scripts and storyboards, organized alphabetically by project name. Boxes 42- 44 consist of correspondence, organized chronologically when possible. Box 45 consists of business contracts.

Boxes 46 – 47 consist of materials related to certain business projects, organized alphabetically by project name. Box 48 consists of information related to classes and events. Boxes 49 – 53 consist of various business record, arranged according to type of material where able. Box 54 consists of newspaper clippings. Box 55 consists of photographs. Boxes 56 – 57 consist of personal records. Boxes 58 – 59 contain orchestrations, organized alphabetically by title.

Boxes 60 – 65 are restricted, containing mostly personal or financial information.
