Agency History/Biographical Sketch:
Glen was born November 28, 1945, in Kenosha, Wisconsin. Glen attended St. Mark’s School and graduated from St. Joseph High School, Kenosha, in 1964. Glen went on to study at St. Francis de Sales Preparatory Seminary in Milwaukee and The Saint Paul Seminary, St. Paul, MN. Glen returned to Kenosha in 1972 and worked for the City of Kenosha for 28 years, serving as Superintendent of the Waste Department for 20 years, starting in 1981. In 2001, Glen retired to Gallatin, Tennessee and in 2017, moved to the Twin Cities, Minnesota to be close to children and grandchildren.

Glen was a guitarist and singer-songwriter, specializing in old country music, “the whinier and sadder, the better.” Glen’s willingness to share their love for the Opry and for country music was renowned by all who met Glen. Glen started traveling to Nashville as a youngster with their parents and performed on the “Junior Grand Ole Opry” TV program in 1955, at the age of 9, along with several other radio and television programs. Glen continued to attend the Opry several times a year for decades. In 1987, Glen became the President of the newly-formed Grand Ole Opry Fan Club, and continued in this role for 23 years. Glen purchased his front row Opry tickets three years in advance for as long as he could, and in 1980, secured tickets for the 100th Anniversary Celebration in 2025. Glen hosted a monthly gathering known as “Country 101” in his home for 13 years to honor country stars, their music, and their history.

At age 75 Glen died peacefully on December 29, 2020 at Park Nicollet Methodist Hospital in St. Louis Park, MN.

Scope and Content:
This collection consists of country music related materials, primary radio barn dances collected by Glen Thompson and his father, Sterling Thompson. The manuscript papers consist of handwritten notes, newspaper clippings, articles photocopied from books, journals, newspapers, magazines, correspondence, photographs and webpage printouts. Also included in the collection are books, serials, and sound recordings.
related to the subjects of country music, and barn dances. There are sound recordings, video recordings, artifacts, original sheet music, and songbooks in the collection.

Arrangement:
Original arrangement was kept in the processing of this collection, except for a few misplaced or added items which were integrated into existing groupings. The collection was donated in labeled magazine holders. This order and organization were retained in rehousing processes. The collection created obvious series.
